

MUSEUM OF DOMESTIC DESIGN & ARCHITECTURE (MoDA)
MIDDLESEX UNIVERSITY
CAT HILL, BARNET, HERTS, EN4 8HT

Return of Suburbia
Conference
Saturday 18th March 2006 (10am – 4pm)
Registration 10am to 10:30

This one-day conference invites reflection on the cultural and social history of suburbia and its presence today in the national consciousness. The speakers are from various fields of interest in suburbia and the suburban.

The morning's session will explore different views of the suburbs as a whole, while the afternoon will focus on the suburban garden in particular.

Arrivals and registration from 10am to start at 10.30am. The day will be introduced and chaired by Professor Barry Curtis, Middlesex University

Rob Stone, Middlesex University
Suburban Theologies

Paul Overy, Middlesex University
Modernity on the Edge: Modernism and Suburbia

Claire Pajakowska, Middlesex University
Unreal Estate; Suburbia and Infantile Omnipotence: repressed childhoods and the pictorial imagination

Christine Jordan, De Montfort University
Suburbia: a Provincial View

Elizabeth Lebas, Middlesex University
The Suburban Landscape and the Origins of Common Ownership

Michael Ann Mullen, Middlesex University
The Suburban Garden: Its Social & Aesthetic Origins

Rebecca Preston, Centre for Suburban Studies, Kingston University
Between representation and reality: reading sources for the suburban garden

Tickets are £30 full price or £25 concessions. A sandwich lunch is included in the price.
Please return the slip below to the Bookings Administrator, MoDA. (enquiries contact 020 8411 4394)

I would like to book _____ full place(s) at £30.00 and _____ concessionary place(s) at £25.00 for Return of Suburbia, 18th March 2006.

I enclose a cheque for £_____ made payable to Middlesex University

Name _____

Address _____

Email/Phone _____